THE EDITOR'S CHAIR.

HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT.

The opinion of The Caucasian and the opinion of others which we can endorse on the various Topics of the Day.

Mrs. Cornelia Spencer, one of the most intellectual and literary women of North Carolina, in a communication to last week's North Carolina Presbyterian, gives the editor a deserved and timely rebuke for not paying any attention to the Centennial Commemoration of the University through the columns of his paper. Such a failure of duty toward himself and his readers is enough to cause the paper to suffer to some extent in prestige as a fair, honest and faithful public journal, whether or not the omission was promptly and properly and pecuniarily settled. We know other parties on whom a similar rebuke would not fall amiss.

NOT GUILTY?

Just as we predicted last week, the Board of Directors have acquitted Dr. Eugene Grissom of the grave and humiliating and damning charges preferred against him. We said he would be acquitted by a majority of one, and this was practically so, for we had counted the noses of five of the nine members of the Board that were for Grissom when the trial commenced, and that would in all probability stay that way. This is easily understood, if one of those five men said what we have heard he did, that he would believe no man on his oath who testified against Grissom. We hope, for the credit of the management of the institution, that this is not so, and we will be pleased to make the correction if it is not.

Let us take the first charge against the Superintendent, viz: the misappropriation of property belonging to the institution. Now we will not take into consideration the testimony of witnesses [though one of these witnesses was no less a person than John W. Thompson, the steward of the institution, a man whose reputation and character stands unimpaired, in spite of the fact that the defense tried to find one man to testify against the integrity of this big-hearted and upright man] but we will take the admissions of Dr. Grissom himself. He said he had never used for private purposes or sent away from the institution any wines, liquors, turkeys, chickens, etc., in large quantities. Now if he had a right to send away or use a little of the State's property for private purposes he had an equal right to use any quantity. The principal is the same. What bank would not dismiss in disgrace a cashier for embezzling one dollar as quick as for one thousand? The matron says that she raised and gave to Dr.
Grissom some of the turkeys that he used. We would like to know what she fed those turkeys with. We think the answer could be found in a hole in the Asylum granary in North Carolina. But we pass by this charge, for possibly the Superintendent thought he had a right to so use the State's property.

The next charge, viz: Cruelty and inhuman treatment of patients. Again we will not take the evidence, for the advisability of mechanical restraint by strapping is yet an open question, but the admission of Dr.
Grissom himself. He says that he had a patient, who spat at and cursed him, thrown down and held while he put his foot on the patient's neck, a little blood was seen, but doesn't know where it came from. Again he hears one of the patients using his (Grissom's) name improperly in connection with a certain female attendant, he (Grissom) gets powerfully angry, curses the patient and has him thrown upon a bed and strapped. We are not only surprised but shocked that the "great, good, kind and humane father to the insane," should have so treated poor, pitiable, irresponsible, reason-bereft, God-blighted specimens of humanity, who knew not what they did. How could such a man get powerfully angry with and curse such poor helpless things? Can it be that the cunning eyes of the insane had seen something improper and knew no better than to let the tongue give words to what the eye had seen? Does this explain the powerful fit of anger?

But we pass over these two charges and go to the third and last. The one (which if true) would make him specially unfit for his important and sacred trust, viz: improper and immoral conduct toward certain females. We can give none of the shocking evidence on this charge and keep THE CAUCASIAN the clean chaste paper it has always been, at all times fit to be read around the family fireside of its subscribers. However, Dr. Grissom denies all these charges, but admits that he did kiss another man's wife in his private office through sympathy.
This woman was young and beautiful, though in needy circumstances. It seems to us that a $5 bank note would have been a more substantial and proper kind of sympathy in such a case.
But the Board of Directors have acquitted the accused, but the higher tribunal to who we referred last week has not acquitted and will not. The nature of this charge and the testimony supporting it has been such as leave at least a great and terrible doubt in the minds of the people of North Carolina. A doubt such that no man of high spirit and true Southern chivalry could be satisfied to entrust those that are nearest and dearest to him in that institution with that man in charge. In the language of Col. Waddell:

"Surely, surely, if there was one institution in our State where the people had a right to expect to find a pure and humane administration, if there was, within all her wide borders, one spot where they might justly hope to see prevailing the virtues which have elevated and ennobled our race, it was here, where by such contrast, God's lesson of repentance is hourly taught. But those who have so trusted—and they were the great body of the people—have been rudely awakened to a realization of the fact that even in this sanctuary of the afflicted, the trail of the serpent has been made, and that its chosen High Priest—he who should have been its faithful servant and guardian—has yielded to the tempter and done grievous wrong to them, to this asylum, and himself."

Yes, the High Priest must step down and out. His usefulness in that position is forever destroyed.

"A LOT OF THINKING."

The Manufacturers' Record, the largest industrial paper in America, and one which is devoted almost exclusively to Southern development, has the following pointer in last week's issue:

Northern newspapers are beginning to open their eyes to the steady progress of the South in industrial development. She recent agreement to place a contract for 3,000, 000 yards of cotton bagging by the Georgia Alliance with Georgia and Louisiana mills has caused several Northern papers to make editorial comment. In reference to this contract the Philadelphia Telegraph asks:

"Where has it [the Alliance] gone for that considerable quantity of goods? To the New England mills?
Not at all. It might have done so once, and not so very long ago, but now it has no need to do so. The contracts were given to mills in Louisiana and Georgia, and the incident is very completely illustrative of the many radical changes which have taken place in one of our leading industries. The South has no longer any need to divide an important part of its revenues with the cotton spinners of Massachusetts and Rhode Island. It does its own work and keeps its money at home. The incident will bear a lot of thinking."

Those who wish to know what good the Alliance has done or can do, let him read the above paragraph and find a part of the answer.

THE ENCAMPMENT.

IT ENDS AND THE BOYS SET OUT FOR HOME.

A Pleasant Stay by the Sea Side.

[Staff Cor. THE CAUCASIAN.]

After nine pleasantly and profitably spent days by the seaside, North Carolina's soldier boys have broken camp and gone their ways home. There were about 1200 of them in camp, some having come from the remotest parts of the state to enjoy the delightful sea breezes and invigorating surf as well as to receive military schooling. "Considering the early day at which the Encampment came off this year, we think the number of men encamped was as large as could be expected."

The 3rd Regiment was the smallest this year, but it is only justice to say here that it is most, if not quite all the 3rd is composed of men living in the tobacco region and, at this time for tobacco growers to neglect their crops even for a few days means a severe loss. For this reason many who would have come later were compelled to remain at home. This was the case to some extent in other Regiments and the Encampment by all means should come later hereafter.

The Maxton Guards arrived on Monday of the last week of the Encampment and were met at the depot by a detachment of four men from each company of the 2nd Regiment and escorted to their quarters. Captain Black brought 33 men in ranks and his company made a fine appearance.

On Tuesday the companies of the 2nd Regiment and two (Durham and Greensboro) of the 3rd engaged in a competitive target shooting. Some excellent shooting was done, distance 200 yards and 25 points the highest possible to be scored by each individual and 125 by each team. The following is the score made by each team of five men from each company: Wilmington Light Infantry, 68; Fayetteville " " 95;
Scotland Neck Cavalry 65; Durham Light Infantry, 53; Maxton Guards, 68; Guilford Grays, 72;
Lumber Bridge L. I., 95; Sampson " 76.

There were three prizes. One for best company shooting, one for 2nd best company shooting and one for best individual shot.
On the first round the Fayetteville and Lumber Bridge companies tied, both making a score of 95, and Sergt. Pemberton of Fayetteville, Hall of Lumber Bridge and Sergt. Owen of Sampson tied on the individual score each making 21. The latter tie was first shot off and resulted in a hard won victory for Mr. Pemberton by a score of 22 to Mr. Hall's 21 leaving his record as the best shot in the state unbroken.

The company tie was next shot off and resulted in a victory for the Lumber Bridge team, giving them the honor of being the first team to beat that of the F. I. L. I. The score stood 98 to 97. This was a close contest and shows that the 2nd Regiment contains some fine marksmen.

If there had been a third company prize it would have been won by the Clinton team, which made a score of 76, good, indeed, for a team that has had comparatively no practice. Our team with a reasonable amount of practice would compare favorably with any in the State Guard.

The boys of Co. F were glad to welcome Capt. W. L. Faison in camp Tuesday. Prior to the arrival of Capt. Faison Lieut.
T. H. Partick commanded Co. F.

Lieut. Matt R. Peterson, U. S.
A., was in camp with the boys occasionally during the day. He filled the place of Adjutant Leak of the 3rd Regiment on Tuesday and Wednesday while Mr. Leak was in Clinton attending the marriage of his friend Mr. Duncan DeVane to Miss Berta Bizzell.

The only accident of any consequence that happened during the Encampment was the accidental shooting of Walter Carson of Co. K from Dallas. He was drawing a double action pistol from his pocket when it was accidentally discharged and the ball entered the fleshy part of his hip inflicting a painful wound. The doctors think the wound not dangerous.

On Thursday morning, the 18th, camp was broken and about 40 car loads of soldier

SOAP AND STARCH FACTO-RIES.

Why Not Have One or Both in Clinton? They Would Yield a Profit and Give a Market for Raisin and Sweet Potatoes.

The Manufacturer's Record of the 13th instant contains the following, which every businessman South should read and consider:

We have often wondered why soap making has not been made an important Southern industry. Nothing is used more generally or consumed more rapidly. In slavery days when there was a leachery on every plantation, laundry soap was of resin heaped up in the wheel-barrows of the slaves. Now the stores carry large stocks obtained from Chicago, New York and other Northern cities. The South, served as a rule by wasteful negro handmaids, is paying a heavy tribute to Northern manufacturers, while furnishing them the resin and cottonseed oil of which they make large use. We have seen boxes of cheap soap containing a large percentage of resin heaped up in the wheel-barrows of the slaves. The South stores, when we could not find a single bar made below the Ohio and Potomac rivers. Soap making, both for the laundry and the toilet can be and ought to be a great Southern industry. While in Chicago several years ago, we were visiting an extensive job printing house. There we saw two dry loads of labels sent to a local soap maker. On inquiry we learned that the soap was made by this one concern. It exceeded $1,500. This led to a visit to the soap factory, where we found that they consumed from 12,000 to 15,000 barrels of resin and nauty. This North Carolina and Georgia turpentine distillers are supplying, at an infinitesimal profit to themselves, a material that, after having added to it commissions, wharffages and freights to Chicago, comes back in soap, to which the maker's profits, the freight charges and the jobbers' and retail merchants' profits are added, and Southern consumers pay all these unnecessary bills. Surely soap factories will pay, and yet in fourteen States, in the last three months but two new ones have been started.

Where is all the starch used in the South made? Do you know? Do you will and you will find none but Northern makers' names on the packages in the grocery stores. And yet, if chemists tell the truth, the sweet potato will yield a large percentage of starch as well as the yam. The Carolina and Georgia fields often average several hundred bushels to the acre.

We might continue these illustrations indefinitely. The South abounds in starch and in the materials for profitable industries that require but little capital to commence, but that can be worked up into immense concerns by economic, diligent and persevering work.

Any merchant in Clinton could make more money by taking his capital out of the mercantile business and starting such factories. The manufacturer is the man who makes the profit. Then think, too, of what a benefit to the town such an enterprise would be.

REV. A. B. ALDERMAN.

The Biblical Recorder has the following to say of the death of our late well-known countryman:

One more of the standard bearers has fallen. On July 8 at eleven o'clock P. M. Rev. A. B. Alderman fell asleep in Jesus. A glorious life has closed to make way for a more glorious one among the redeemed. He was born in Duplin county, N. C., July 28, 1819. He was baptized in 1842, and of the Southern Baptist Church. After attending several sessions at Wake Forest, he began his life's labors in earnest, which have extended over a large portion of Eastern North Carolina.

He was married in 1851 to Penny E. Howard, who survives him.
From this union the Lord blessed them with a large number of children, some of whom are leaders in the educational work of the State. J.
T. Alderman of Fork church, and J. O. Alderman of Faison's are among the number of his children.

He was the prime mover in the organization of the Cedar Creek Association, over which he presided as Moderator. The territory of the Association becoming too extensive, he organized the Southwestern River Association of which he was Moderator, until his health would not permit his attendance.

He was buried in the cemetery at Dunn where twenty years ago he began his wilderness to preach before the new city of Dunn was thought of. But from such little beginnings the Lord often brings great results, and the Dunn Baptist church stands as a monument to the untiring effort of the departed saint.

IN THE WEST.

A SAMPSON BOY ORGANIZES ALLIANCES IN CLEVELAND, SWAIN, HENDERSON, CHEROKEE AND BUNCOMBE.A Description of What He Has Seen, Heard and Done.

DEAR FRIEND AND EDITOR: I have not forgotten the promise made you sometime since, but as writing for the public print is altogether out of my line of business, it has been no small task for me to perform. I left my home year ago to-day, I left my home and friends in old Sampson county, since which time I have been in the "hill country" of Western North Carolina with the exception of three weeks, I spent with you and other eastern friends last winter.

Believing I would like the mountains I obtained a commission from President Alexander and Secretary Polk to organize Farmers' Alliance. On the 2nd of July, 1888, I left for Cleveland to engage in this new field of labor where I spent about two months and organized twenty-two sub-Alliances, and a flourishing County Alliance of as clever and industrious a people as can be found anywhere. The country is generally pretty level, laying on the eastern side, and at the foot of the Blue Ridge mountains. The soil is fertile and the farmers produce mainly corn, cotton and wheat. Shelby is the county seat, and is a lovely town of about 2,000 inhabitants. The noted and historic King's Mountains and Cleveland White Sulphur Springs are both favorite resorts for visitors from the East and South. From here I went across the Blue Ridge in the heart of the "Land of the Sky." I began the work of organizing in November, but this being new to the people up here very little progress was made until in February of this year when the organization was completed—now numbering thirty-two subordinate and a County Alliance of the best farmers of this country.

Buncombe is a large and thickly populated county and is quite rolling, but produces excellent corn, wheat, tobacco, cabbage, potatoes, fruits, also grass and clover, which is king in the mountains.

In Asheville is found the best market in the State for all farm and garden products. Asheville, as hour readers well know, is known as the metropolis of the West, and indeed it is the most progressive city we have ever visited. Within the past few years it has grown to 10,000 or 12,000 population, and in less than a decade it will be second to only a few of the Southern cities. Its several railroads, electric street cars, electric and gas lights, large and magnificent factories, stores, colleges, &c., all add to the prosperity, in a commercial sense, and the pure water, bracing atmosphere, picturesque mountain scenery, attracts thousands of visitors and invalids from every source to it, magnificent hotels and sanita-rums.

From Asheville I went to Henderson, which borders on the south of Buncombe, and which is about the same altitude 2,000 to 25,000 feet above sea level, and soil is productive of about the same crops. I organized twenty sub-Alliances and a County Alliance. Hendersonville is the county-seat and a beautiful and healthy resort of 1,200 inhabitants. One of the most delightful and attractive places in the county is Flat Rock, a little village built up by wealthy South Carolina planters. The huge rock from which the place derived its name, is near by, and rears its lofty head into the air nearly 1,000 feet. Tourists seldom comes to the county without visiting this rock.

From here, in company with W. F. Tomlinson, editor of the Asheville Country Home, which is, by the way, one of the best agricultural papers published in the State, I went to Haywood county, which lies on the western borders of Buncombe and is the highest county in the west; however it is no less productive than her sister counties.
For grass, clover, stock and fruit it is especially noted. Corn, wheat and tobacco grow well on the table lands, to say nothing of the fertile river bottoms.
Owing to the busy season we only organized a few Alliances, but the county has been since worked by Mr. Tomlinson.

Waynesville is a town of about 1,000 inhabitants, but the most attractive place is the

CUMBERLAND NEWS.

THE CENTENNIAL-CUMBER-LAND FAIR THE SAME WEEK—STATE GUARD INVITED.

New Houses Going Up—Crop Prospects Good—A Cotton Compress in the Future.

ALL CUMBERLAND WILL COME TO THE SAMPSON FAIR.

[Reg. Cor. CAUCASIAN.]
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., July 22d, 1889.

Cumberland Superior Court is in session this week with his Honor, Judge Connor, presiding.
The term is a criminal one. The docket is about an average one, there being nearly one hundred cases. Some grave charges are to be heard, but no capital ones.
Mr. E. L. Pemberton, Orderly Sergeant of the F. I. L. I., is the "crack shot" of the State Guard. He won the prize for the best individual score at the shooting match at the Hammock during the encampment.

The military train from Wrightsville arrived here Thursday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock P. M. The F. I. L. I. marched at once to their armory and broke ranks with many pleasant recollections of Camp Latimer.
The Winston and Greensboro companies were on the train and took dinner here.

Judge McKee is holding a special term of Wayne Superior Court this week. It is by exchange with Judge Armfield, who will hold Martin court next fall.

On Sunday lightning struck and killed Judge McKee's fine horse. It also stunned several children but did them no harm beyond a severe shock.

The Board of Trustees have not yet elected a superintendent of the Graded Schools. An informal vote was taken at the meeting last week and indicates the election of an accomplished young instructor. There is quite a number of applicants. The salary is $100 per month.

Mr. Frank W. Thornton is building fine two-story dwellings on Maiden Lane. They are for rent and most of them are rented before they are completed. There is a good demand here for houses renting for $8.00 to $12.00 per month.

The crop prospects in this county are good. The farmers all say so. If the present rainy spell does not injure them the outlook is better than for ten years.

The Centennial Committee has invited the State Guard to take part in the celebration next November. The invitation was officially announced at Camp Latimer by General Anthony, the hope expressed that all will attend.

The Cumberland County Agricultural Association will hold their Fair during the week of the Centennial. We trust that the people of this entire section will unite to make it better than ever. The premium list is open to Sampson and the counties of this section and the upper counties of South Carolina. A pre-list can be obtained by addressing the Association at Fayetteville. We would be glad to see all Sampson here at that time, and will promise to help get all Cumberland at the Clinton Fair.

Messrs. McMillan Bros. have just erected a neat brick office adjoining their store on Person street. This is an enterprising firm.

Col. J. A. Pemberton, Deputy Collector under Collector Yarborough, is about to have his official head chopped off. It is said that Mr. W. G. Hall, of Max-ton, is to take the place. The salary is $1,000 and perquisites.
We suppose Mr. Hall will move here. It is hard to st. quately by and see incompetent officials displace competent ones, but "to the victors belong the spoils," and with that cry we will win the battle three years hence. Postmaster Smith continues to draw his handsome salary, but his head will doubtless be chopped off too.

Three representatives of a soda manufacturing concern were here last week riding over town distributing sample packages and decorating the "small boys" with red and white caps with an advertisement on them.

Ye cotton com,ress talk has died out. It was thought that one would be built here this summer in order to handle this season's products. It will come in another year.

THE CAUCASIAN'S RECORD.

CIRCULATION: 1,549.
One year ago it was less than 800.
During the last 14 weeks we have mailed over 25,000 copies.

by a cloud-burst flood. This one is in West Virginia.

The Medical Fraternity of South Carolina has expelled Dr.
McDow, the murderer of Capt.

The next session of the University of North Carolina will open the first Thursday in September, the Trustees having ordered the change at their recent meeting.

A salt trust has been formed which increases the price of this commodity 20 cents on every barrel. How long, O! how long will the people continue to bear such tyranny?

Only 28 years Sunday since the great battle of Manassas and this is not a union of discordant elements pinned together by bayonets save in the eyes of 'Bloody-shirt' Foraker and William 'Earless' Chandler and their satellites.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. E. A. Oldham, a native of this State, who made a State reputation as editor, for several years, of the Winston Sentinel, afterwards managing editor of the Anniston Hot Blast, and for the last year editor of the Charleston World, will soon return to devote his time, energy and talent in the journalistic field of his native State. He will take charge of the Durham Plant about August first, change the name of the paper to the Durham Globe, enlarge it, give it a new dress, have it supplied with the press dispatches and make it one of the leading North Carolina dailies. Brother Oldham, we greet you. Such enterprise is a good tonic for us all.

As soon as the verdict of acquittal in the Grissom case was announced on last Saturday, J.
W. Thompson, the Steward of the Asylum, sent in to the Board the following letter of resignation:

N. C. INSANE ASYLUM,
RALEIGH, N. C., July 20th, 1889.
To the Board of Directors of the N. C. Insane Asylum.
Gentlemen: I hereby tender my resignation as Steward of the North Carolina Insane Asylum to take effect as soon as convenient to you.
I feel it my duty to you, to the public and to myself to state in brief some of my reasons for so doing.
1st. I am unwilling to serve under the direction of or in association with the present Superintendent.
2nd. I am unwilling to serve under appointment of a Board of Directors who would sustain any man in the face of such evidence as has been produced against him.
3rd. I am unwilling to be connected with an institution the management of which is entrusted to a Board of Directors who permit a system of entries which conceal the real transactions, and by which the Superintendent appropriates to his private use certain supplies belonging to the institution which the statute law forbids. Very respectfully, JNO. W. THOMPSON.

A large number of the citizens of Raleigh held an indignation meeting in Metropolitan Hall on Monday night at the action of the Board of Directors of the Insane Asylum in acquitting Dr. Grissom. Treas-A. D. Jones and editor Josephus Daniels were called on for speeches. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiment of the body. No doubt this same feeling exists to a greater or less extent all over the state. We were pressed by several citizens of Clinton and the surrounding country to call through THE CAUCASIAN an indignation meeting in Clinton, but we did not think this the best course, but we do hope that every editor in the state will fearlessly speak out his sentiments in the matter.

In conclusion, we would say that whether Dr. Grissom is guilty or not, one thing is certain, that his usefulness in the position he now holds is fore-ever impaired. Therefore if he is half the man that he and his friends claim that he is, he can not fail to see that it is his duty to the State of North Carolina to resign immediately.

GRISSOM'S BIOGRAPHY.

Counsel Fuller Commences It and Counsel Waddell Finishes It.

Col. Waddell, counsel for the prosecution in the Grissom trial puts in the following paragraph, in answer to Col. Fuller, counsel for the defence:

The counsel who opened this discussion, speaking of the history of this institution, in connection with a eulogistic biography of Dr. Grissom, "saying that the hallowing hands of political partisanship had never been and would never be placed upon it, and he alluded to that sad period of the history of North Carolina directly by after the war when she was humbled in the dust. This was an unfortunate reference, indeed, for il-ludent, and it relieves me from any obligation not to refer to a subject to which otherwise I would have made no allusion. Does counsel suppose that the people of North Carolina have forgotten or ever will forget those days, or the part that his client played in them? Is he trying to remind us, Dr. Grissom enjoyed the distinguished honor of presiding over the first convention of those who took possession after the war, and organized hell in our State? The counsel who has had the good man and venerable physician, Dr. Fisher, was displaced from the superintendency of this institution?
How, after much dirty intrigue, the first notice Dr. Fisher received of his removal was when that "hellish coil," Tim Lee, the carpet-bag sheriff of Wake county, appeared at the door of this institution and notified him to get out as Dr. Grissom was ready to take charge. Verily, it cannot be denied that for nineteen years past the hands of political partisanship have not been laid upon this institution when they might very well have been, and experience has taught many to be grateful for it as Dr. Grissom.

All this is irrelevant to this case, but so was the biographical sketch of Dr. Grissom as a Mason and a physician, which counsel read, and it is to complete the biography which he has unfurnished, that I add these little items.

THE TEACHER'S WORK.

(Special Cor. Caucasian.)

While many of our teachers are at the Assembly or the different Normals, preparing for better work in the future and exchanging ideas with regard to methods of teaching others are compelled to spend the vacation months at home with little opportunity for improvement thro' intercourse with others. But these must not be idle if they wish to perform their work in an intelligent way. The experience of the individual teacher shows this too plainly. He must improve from the experience of the past and must plan his work so as to avoid the mistakes he has already made, and must make his past success servient to a broader work in the future.

The lessons of experience are perhaps more valuable to the teacher than to others engaged in ordinary work, for he has direct dealing with the minds of the children that are to be the men and women of the future.
One duly impressed with the importance of filling a position which throws such direct influence over the moral, intellectual and political interests of the future, feels that he cannot afford to repeat a past mistake in his work or allow a single success to be lost. The advancement he has made in his work and the lessons he has learned with regard to it are worth more to him than to study the experience of others who have been more successful, if by so doing he must give up what his own experience has taught. Many are successful who do not work on the same plan and so much depends on the teacher's adaptation to his work, with regard to the peculiar circumstances under which he may be placed, that he cannot afford to imitate others entirely, who may be very successful under a different combination of surrounding influences. The art of teaching should be followed with as much uniformity of system as possible, but the teacher is to remember that he is not a mere imi-tator of others, but a thinking being, who is to profit from the success of others so far as he can utilize the elements of their success, at the same time supplying by his own invention proberties which will combine to make his own success. The best plans of others must be critically studied with a view to improving or changing them to suit the requirements of the case. But with all this the teacher often finds himself in a dilemma where he must act must act without authorized precedent, for each character that comes under his influence contains peculiar traits.

To deal with the minds of children that are developing and unfolding, and often revealing unexpected phrases of character is a serious and immeasurably responsible work. Leo.

Ex-Secretary of State, Thos.
F. Bayard, will probably be the next Governor of Delaware.
Does he want the position? No, for what honor or pay is there in it for him? But there is a bitter party split and the outlook is gloomy, and Bayard stands out as Vance did in this State in 1876, as the only man who can stem the tide and save the State.

A Word of Caution.

At the meeting of the county Alliance on the 5th inst., a resolution was adopted recommending that each sub-Alliance discuss a proposition to raise a County Business Agency Fund of $1000, and report at the October meeting. This is a good idea and if put into operation would be of great benefit to this county, provided it would not retard the raising or cause us to lose sight of the State Business Agency Fund. We owe our existence as a county Alliance to the State Alliance and we are traitors to the other county Alliances, to the great general organization, and to the principles of the order to do anything to retard or destroy the efficacy of the organization as a whole and as a unit. Has this county done all that it can to help raise the State Business Agency Fund? If it has how then is it able to raise a County Business Agency Fund? But says some one, we have done as much as any other county now and will not do any more until some other county does more.
But stop! That doctrine will not do. The Alliance was not organized on any such local or selfish principles and if we are going to conduct the organization with such logic as this we had just as well to announce our independence and withdraw our allegiance from the State Alliance at once, which would mean that the order would go to pieces in this county in less than twelve months.
For a county Alliance to attempt to be independent of the State Alliance is as absurd as it would be for a limb of a tree to attempt to grow without drawing its plant food through the body of the tree.

If Sampson County can raise a fund of $1000, would it not be better to donate it to the State Fund and call on all other counties to do likewise, which would raise not only $50,000 but $75,- 000 immediately. After this is done, then let us talk of a county fund, if we need it.

LOCALS.

—The boys of Co. F, arrived home late last Thursday at noon after a pleasant stay of nine days in camp by the sea-side.

—W. K. Pigford and Marion Butler are the delegates appointed to represent Sampson county at the Interstate Farmers' Association which meets in Montgomery, Ala., on Aug. the 20th.

—The Rifle team of Co. F made the third best score target practice at the Encampment and Sergeant Owen did the best individual on the first round. Our team should practice more and then it would stand a better chance at the annual contest.

—A telegram was received by the Sheriff Tuesday morning to be on the lookout for a negro answering a given description. A character answering the description stepped from the 12 o'clock train in to the hands of assistant policeman, Thomas Butler, and promptly lodged in jail. The negro is charged with stealing $300 in Georgia. A preliminary hearing of his case will come up before Mayor Thomson this (Thursday) morning. Clinton is not a healthy place for escaping evil doers.

—The steam saw-mill (50 horse power boiler) of W. J. Powell, located on Chaharie, three miles east of Clinton, was burned on last Sunday night about 10 o'clock. The engine and boiler are damaged but can be repaired, but there was a number of small rip and cut saws, a valuable chest of tools, almost to which destroyed, a shingle machine, which had been bought for the mill, was, fortunately, not yet brought from the depot. The cause of the fire is unknown. The mill supplied material for the Carolina Veneer Works.

—Business men, be sure to read and consider the article on the first page of this paper with reference to soap and starch factories. The sweet potato, it is said, makes as good a grade of starch as there is on the market, and there is no limit to the quantity our farmers can raise. The machinery for the factory is not expensive. This latter statement is also true of a soap factory, and in addition the immense quantities of resin which soap concerns use, we have right here at home. Will not those facts bear a "lot of thinking"? Let us wake up and start some of the many little enterprises that would add so much to the prosperity of this place.

—Business men of Clinton, read the following paragraph: "Blowing" helps a town if it has anything to show about it; the best advertisement any town can have is a live, thriving place, crowded with well written advertisements of every business in the place, from doctor to blacksmith. The reason advertisements in the local paper make a good advertisement of the town is, that the world knows that advertising pays, and people know that where all the business men of a town advertise, they must be prosperous, because prosperity is the inevitable result of advertising.

Now, we believe this to be true, therefore we have decided to write up our home advertisers in next week's issue, by way of calling special attention to the progressiveness and business prosperity of this place. We will give a short biographical sketch of all home advertisers, and also a sketch of the volume and kind of business done by each. If the statement in the above paragraph is true, our town could not possibly have a better and more paying advertisement than the one we will give it next week.

—The attention of those who have subscribed to the Methodist church fund and others who are interested in the rebuilding of the church, is called to the notice in this week's paper from Messrs. Nicholson and Moore. We understand that the funds that are now on hand will continue the work for only three weeks longer. Therefore, if more money is not raised in that time the building must stand unfinished. It would be a pity for such to be the case, for if the church could be properly finished after the present plan it would be decidedly the handsomest structure of the kind in the county, it will be a credit to Clinton, to the county and especially to the denomination. Last summer we offered for several weeks to give 50 cents on each cash subscription to the church fund and was surprised to receive only two during that time. We felt like we ought to help but are unable to do so directly. But we will make another proposition to be good until September the first. Every person who will raise us a club of ten cash subscribers, we will pay to that person $5.00 (one half of the subscription price) to be donated to the Methodist church fund, and in addition we will give the person who gets up the club, one year's subscription free. We will publish the names of the members of each club headed by the name of the person who raises the club.

Carolina Veneer Works.

The Manufacturers' Record, in its report of Southern Industries, has the following item under North Carolina notes:

Clinton—Veneer Works.—The Carolina Veneer Works have enlarged their works and put in additional machinery for the manufacturing of better grades, thirty-seven machines for making grape baskets, etc.

The above is true as far as it goes, it is not the whole truth. There are twelve additional butter dish machines put in, making the capacity of that department of the factory now 40,000 dishes per day. The thirty-seven grape basket machines turn out 3,700 baskets per day. Machinery is being added for making orange boxes that will have a capacity of 10,000 per day. The crate department has a capacity of 700 per day, while the berry basket department has a capacity of 35,000 per day. The majority of the butter dishes are shipped to a New York firm, and this firm says that it is the best and handsomest dish on the world's market to-day. Great improvement has been made in the grape basket, and Mr. Noble, a large grower of Wilmington, is authority, saying that it is now one of the best baskets in the market. We understand that the factory has just received an order for a large commission merchant in Jacksonville, Fla., (who has formerly been buying from Maine) for 400,000 orange boxes. This is a big enterprise for Clinton and too much for the public spirited, progressive and large-hearted proprietor can not be said.

We have only to regret that Clinton has not a hundred A. F. Johnsons. But, alas! the man who has done so much for his town is now almost a physical wreck from overwork and is absent seeking rest and recreation. However, Mr. Johnson can rest assured that with such men as Foreman, J. S. Clute, engineer, B. F. Fennell, and book-keeper, H. B. Chesnut, in charge, that the work of the enterprise will be pushed with zeal and despatch.

Shall We Have A Fair?

The life members of the Sampson County Agricultural Association met in the Courthouse on last Saturday, pursuant to a call published in the last issue of THE CAUCASIAN, and proceeded to organize by electing for President, H. E. Faison; for Business Manager, H. B. Chesnut; for Corresponding Secretary, Marion Butler.

Col. L. A. Powell, Capt. W. L. Faison and a person whom they should select, were appointed as a committee to inspect the Fair Grounds with a view to estimating necessary repairs and report at the next meeting, on Friday, July 26th, at 2 P. M., at which time decided steps will be taken with regard to holding an Agricultural Fair at this place next Fall.

Let every good citizen lend his support to further this object, for a Fair we should and must have.

Clinton in the Same Fix.

The Wilson Mirror, in referring to the nuisance of having the Wilson county jail in the heart of town, says:

The jail—the county jail now situated in the heart of town—is a nuisance, and should be so declared by the Board of Health. And the town Commissioners and the good people of the town ought to have no respect for their surroundings, and by vicious language, unbecomingly howling, dancing, blasphemous prying, to say nothing of the loathsome emanations, poisoning the atmosphere, so annoy all those within ear and nose-shut as to make the further continuance of the same a shame upon the county authorities.

Clinton is in exactly the same unpleasant condition. Now, Mr. County Commissioners, (in the language of the dear good ladies) please move this nuisance of a jail—please do it! Won't you?

HALLS.

Mr. Thomas Hobbs has placed up on our table an Irish potato of the early rose variety of remarkable size and shape. He says that his father, the late Wm. P. Hobbs, commenced planting this potato immediately after the war and that he had been saving their own seed and planting every year since. There is a moral in this that other farmers would do well to heed.

Died: On Tuesday morning, the 22nd inst., Miss Katie Weeks, the only daughter of the late B. C. Weeks. She had been sick with typhoid fever about ten days, was taken suddenly with hemorrhage of the bowels and died in a few hours. She was buried on Wednesday evening at the side of her father in the family grave.

Miss Katie was a promising girl, very much, some complete weeks. Her father was the greatest go at Harrell's Store by the different firms at 25 cents per pound.

Those Breckings have an apple tree that produced last year 93 gallons of cider and will produce 50 this year.

Stonewall Liebon is making regular trips on the Black River this season.

EX-RESIDENT.

The writer had the pleasure of being at the picnic at Glenwood, 20th inst., which was a very enjoyable affair. There was quite a number of young ladies and gentlemen present. All seemed to enjoy it very much.

We are sorry that brother Jerome was not able to be with us at his last appointment at Goshen. We prayed for his speedy restoration to health and strength.

We are glad to know that old aunt Polly Weeks, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Miss Amanda V. Wilson, of S. C., who has been spending the vacation of her school with her friends and relatives of Sampson, has returned to her home.

During the past week there have been the heaviest rains in this section that have fallen here in many years. Crops are considerably damaged by them.

Franklin.

Freshets have injured the crops very much, some complete weeks. Drought is the greatest go at Harrell's Store by the different firms at 25 cents per pound.

CLINTON, N. C., JULY 25, 1889.

How is this?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that can be cured by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure.
 F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Teledo, O.
 We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 16 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.
 WEST & TRUAX, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
 WALSH, KINMAN & MARTIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
 E. H. VAN HORN, Cashier Toledo National Bank, Toledo, O.
 Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
 Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

It is noted in the reports from Charleston regarding the movements of Dr. McDow that there is "elasticity and firmness in the doctor's step." But, alas! it is not that "firmness" that comes of dancing on the air, and that is just what the doctor's step needs to popularize it.

Mr. D. M. Grayson, of Cranville, Franklin parish, La., says: "I believe Swift is the best blood remedy in the world. I have known it to make wonderful cures of persons with blood diseases, some cases which had been regarded as incurable." Dr. B. T. Coppedge, of Verona, Mo., says he has sold a large quantity of Swift's Specific, and to a great many customers, and knows it to be most successfully used for maladies of the blood.
 SWIFT'S SPECIFIC is not one of the old potash, arsenic, or mercury mixtures. It contains no potash, no mercury, or any poisonous substance. It relieves the system by forcing impurities out through the pores of the skin, and builds up the patient from the first dose.
 We sell great quantities of S. S. S., and the sale holds up well—no falling off, or prospect of falling off.
 While many are loud in their praises, not one complaint has been heard from our customers.
 J. E. SEARS' Drug Store, Waco, Texas.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Drawer 3, Atlanta, Ga.
 Mamma—Bobby, I notice that your little sister took the smaller apple. Did you let her have her choice, as I told you to?
 Bobby—Yes, I told her she could have the little one or none, and she choose the little one.

Convincing Proof.
 In many instances it has been proven that B. B. B., (Botanic Blood Balm), made by Blood Balm Co. Atlanta, Ga., will cure blood poison in its worst phases, even when all other treatment fails.
 A. P. Brunson, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had 24 running ulcers on one leg and 6 on the other, and felt greatly distressed. I believe I actually swallowed a barrel of medicine, in vain efforts to cure the disease. With little hope I finally acted on the urgent advice of a friend, and got a bottle of B. B. B.
 I experienced a change, and my dependency was somewhat dispelled. I kept using it until I had taken sixteen bottles, and all the ulcers, rheumatism and all other horrors of blood poison have disappeared, and at last I am sound and well again, after an experience of twenty years of torture." Robt. Ward, Maxey, Ga., writes:
 "My disease was pronounced a tertiary form of blood poison. My face, head and shoulders were a mass of corruption, and finally the disease began eating my skull bones.
 My bones ached; my kidneys were deranged, I lost flesh and strength, and life became a burden. All said I must surely die, but nevertheless, when I had used ten bottles of B. B. B.
 I was pronounced well. Hundreds of scars can now be seen on me.
 I have now been well over twelve months."

Mr. Pancake: "I don't see, Mr. Newspaper man, why you shouldn't pay up promptly.
 Surely, it can't take long to write a half dozen paragraphs a day." Mr. Newspaper man: "Ah, Mr. Pancake, just suppose you had to give each one of your boarders something every day that none of them had over eaten before!"
